

THE MONTH, READ BY TEN SYSTEMS

November

2026

A month with a hinge in the middle. Two retrogrades end in one weekend, the festival of lights sits on the dark moon, and ten systems finally lean the same way. Mostly.

See where they agree, and where they argue.

Three honest things

This guide predicts nothing.

No chart reads the future. What the traditions read is conditions: what a stretch of time is for, in each system's own terms. We describe the weather and leave the judgement with you.

Ten systems rarely agree.

They were built centuries apart on different continents, and this month, as every month, they argue. We show the argument instead of smoothing it, because the argument is the useful part.

This is everyone's weather, not your forecast.

Every date in here is computed and collective: the same sky for all of us. How it lands depends on your own chart. Someone in a Venus season meets this month differently from someone in Saturn. Your chart is the free part, at mydeziign.app.

A note on what is not in here: no crystals, no remedies, no lucky anything. Where a tradition prescribes such things we leave them with the tradition, and we never sell a cure for weather that needs none.

Where they agree, and where they argue

AGREE

○ The month turns in the middle, in every system

Mercury turns direct on the 13th, Venus on the 14th, the sidereal Sun changes sign on the 16th and a fresh lunar build phase opens on the 17th. Four traditions put a hinge in the same few days. The honest November plan treats the first half as finishing October's review and the second half as moving.

○ From dark lamp to bright lamp

The new moon of the 9th is the dark night Diwali is set by, and the full moon of the 24th falls in Krittika, the flame mansion the Tamil festival of lamps is set by. The month runs from lit darkness to open light, and the Sun's arrival in Sagittarius on the 22nd carries the same lift.

○ Expression, once the road clears

The universal month is 3, the tradition's number of expression. The Sun opens the sidereal Scorpio month crossing gate 1, the I Ching's Creative, and ends the month in gate 34, the Power of the Great. The late month is built for output.

ARGUE

— Steady ground or raised voice?

Nine Star Ki gives November the 8 White Earth note: stillness, accumulation, the mountain. Numerology gives it a 3: expression, the social voice. One system says consolidate quietly, the other says speak. The runes side with the mountain: Hagalaz then Nauthiz, hail then need, constraint twice over. The argument is real, and the hinge in mid month is probably where it resolves, one way per person.

— How dark is the dark half?

The Western first half, two retrogrades under a Scorpio sun, reads heavy. The Vedic first half holds Diwali, with Jupiter exalted overhead. The same fortnight, a warning in one tradition and a festival in the other. We decline to referee.

WEEK 1

1 to 8 November

Finishing October's homework

IN THE SKY

- Last quarter Moon in tropical Leo on the 1st
- The trecena of 1 Manik from the 5th
- Winter Begins on the 7th: the Earth Pig month and the 8 White Earth month open together

WHAT THE TRADITIONS READ IT AS BEING FOR

Still a double retrograde sky, and the traditions agree on its use: close the review Venus opened in early October rather than start November's projects early. The Earth Pig month is read in Four Pillars as the year's water gate, preparation and storage before winter. The deer trecena is the Tzolk'in's steady hand: tools in order, pace even.

TO SIT WITH

What did October's review actually conclude? Write the conclusion down before the sky moves on.

Conditions, not predictions. Nothing here says what will happen.

WEEK 2

9 to 15 November

The dark that holds the lamps

IN THE SKY

- New moon on the 9th in tropical Scorpio, sidereal Vishakha, the dark night the festival of lights is set by
- Mercury stations direct on the 13th
- Venus stations direct on the 14th

WHAT THE TRADITIONS READ IT AS BEING FOR

The deepest week of the month and the one where everything turns. The new moon falls in Vishakha, the mansion of the gateway, read in the tradition as single minded approach to a threshold. Then, within thirty hours, both retrogrades end. Whatever was under review since early October gets its verdict this weekend, and the traditions read the days after a station as the slow release of a held breath, not a starting gun.

TO SIT WITH

What verdict has quietly already been reached, waiting only for you to say it out loud?

Conditions, not predictions. Nothing here says what will happen.

WEEK 3

16 to 23 November

The road clears

IN THE SKY

- Vrischika Sankranti on the 16th, the Sun entering sidereal Scorpio
- First quarter Moon in Aquarius on the 17th
- The trecena of 1 Ahau from the 18th, closing the 260 day round
- The Sun enters tropical Sagittarius on the 22nd

WHAT THE TRADITIONS READ IT AS BEING FOR

The first clean build week since September: no inner planet retrograde, a working quarter moon, and by the 22nd the tropical Sun in the sign the tradition reads as range and honesty. The Tzolk'in spends the week closing its entire 260 day count, which the daykeepers treat as a completion season inside the ordinary one. Output begun now runs with the sky rather than against it.

TO SIT WITH

What were you waiting to start? This is the week the excuses expired.

Conditions, not predictions. Nothing here says what will happen.

WEEK 4

24 to 30 November

The month of lamps ends in flame

IN THE SKY

- Full moon on the 24th in tropical Gemini, sidereal Kritika, the flame mansion of the Tamil lamp festival
- Nauthiz, the need rune, holds the half month
- The Sun crosses Human Design gate 34, the Power of the Great

WHAT THE TRADITIONS READ IT AS BEING FOR

The full moon lands in Kritika, the mansion of the sacred flame, closing the arc that began with Diwali's darkness: the month literally runs lamp to lamp. The Western full moon in Gemini is the classic end of month clearing of words, everything said at once. The need rune underneath counsels economy: power spent where it is needed, not where it shows.

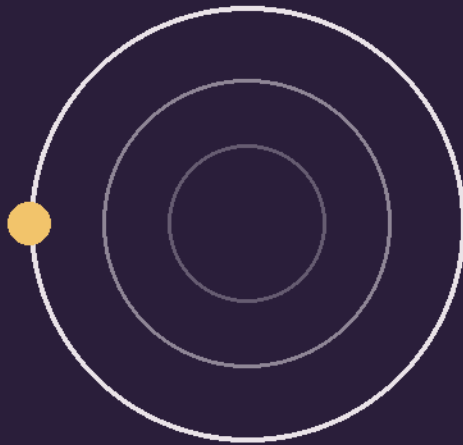

TO SIT WITH

Which fire are you feeding into December, and which one has already given its light?

Conditions, not predictions. Nothing here says what will happen.

The month in each system

Western	Sun Scorpio then Sagittarius from the 22nd. Mercury direct on the 13th, Venus on the 14th: the sky's first clean fortnight since September. Full moon Gemini on the 24th.
Vedic	Diwali's dark moon in Vishakha on the 9th, Sun into Vrischika on the 16th, the Krittika full moon of lamps on the 24th. Jupiter exalted in Cancer all month.
Four Pillars	Ji Hai, the Earth Pig month, from the 7th in the Fire Horse year. The water gate of the year: storage, preparation, the quiet before the solstice.
Nine Star Ki	Month star 8 White Earth from the 7th, in the 1 White Water year. The mountain month: accumulation, stillness, finishing what stands.
Numerology	Universal month 3 in a 1 universal year. Expression and the social voice, strongest once the retrogrades clear mid month.
Human Design	The Sun crosses gates 1, 43, 14 and 34: self expression, insight, prosperity in skill, power. The strongest output arc of the quarter.
Gene Keys	The same gates as spectrum: entropy invited toward freshness, deafness toward insight, compromise toward empowerment. The 3 universal month in another language.
I Ching	The Creative, Breakthrough, Possession in Great Measure, the Power of the Great. The oldest text reads late November as the strong season used rightly.
Tzolk'in	1 Manik from the 5th, then 1 Ahau from the 18th closes the whole 260 day round. A completion fortnight by the oldest unbroken count in the Americas.
Birth runes	Hagalaz to the 13th, Nauthiz to the 28th, then Isa. Hail, need, ice: the northern winter counsel of economy, held lightly as ever.

THE PART THIS GUIDE CANNOT DO

Your chart decides how this month lands.

Everything here is the collective sky, true for everyone and therefore precise for no one. Whether November's hinge lands in your work, your marriage or passes you quietly depends on where Scorpio and Sagittarius sit in your own chart, and on which planetary season you are personally in. Finding out takes about sixty seconds, and it is free.
